SENATOR MARTIN RE-ELECTED.

News of Things and Views of People In and About Washington.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 20.—Senator Martin, of Virginia, yesterday was the recipient of many congratulations, his formal election to another six years' term in the United States senate just having been announced. The senator was congratulated by many of his colleagues in the senate. He also received several telegrams from his supporters in the state.

From the first, when Governor Tyler announced his candidacy for the senate, neither Senator Martin, nor his friends in Virginia, have had the slightest doubt of the senator's re-election to the senate.

It is believed, however, that the candidacy of Governor Tyler has not been without some benefit to the cause of the supporters for a primary election in the state for United States senators. Many persons believe that on a straight contest over that issue the large majority of the people of the state, and of the south, are in favor of the "democratic" method of choosing senators. Many also believe that steps for primary elections in Virginia will be taken before very long, and possibly by the present legislature of Virginia.

Senator Martin, it is said, will go to Richmond in a few days for the purpose of addressing the state legislature, and formally accepting the re-election to the senate, but this will not be until after the Christmas holidays.

He leaves Washington tonight or tomorrow for his home at Scottsville, Va., where he will spend the Christmas season with his friends. He may visit other parts of Virginia before his return to Washington.

Among distinguished southern men in Washington is Hon. Thos. S.
Smith, the attorney general of Texas.
Mr. Smith is one of the big, known and popular attorneys of the south, and has a wide circle of friends. The Texas attorney general is in the city on legal business of interest to his state, particularly in connection with a case now before the United States supreme court, in the case brought by the State of Texas against the Water-Pierce Oil Company, for the alleged violation of the Texas law against trusts. The case comes before the supreme court, it is said, for the purpose of testing the constitutionality of the Texas statute. Much interest is felt in the decision of the supreme court in this case, inasmuch as it will have an important bearing in future state legislation against trusts. Many states are now taking up the question of extending their laws for the purpose of preventing further encroachments on the part of the big corporations, and they are holding off to ascertain the decision in this Texas case.

If the Texas statute is upheld by the United States supreme court, there is reason to believe that in the near future many western and southern states will add trust legislation to their state codes.

Hon. Wm. V. Allen, who was recently appointed by Governor Pointeux, of Nebraska, United States senator to succeed the late Senator Haywood, arrived in Washington, and is making his headquarters at present at the National Hotel.

The senator the other day in speaking of the political situation in Nebraska, said that the recent democratic victory in the state proved conclusively that Bryan will receive the electoral vote of the state next year. The people of the west, the senator says, are as earnest for the free coinage of silver as they were four years ago.

Allen is a close friend of Bryan, and predicts the latter's election to the presidency in 1900.

A contingent of students from Elizabeth College, North Carolina, are in the city for the purpose of attending the concert to be given by Paderewski, the great pianist in this city this afternoon.

J. T. Callahan has returned to his home at Alexandria, Ga. after an extended trip to Augusta, Ga. After the holidays he will go to North Carolina where he will remain during the winter months.

Representative Bartlett, of Georgia, is stopping at the Riggs House. The injury to his limbs is said to be doing nicely, though he has to use crutches, and will have to continue them for a long time.

Nearly all of the Virginia and North Carolina members of the senate and house have either left the city, or will leave this afternoon for their homes.

THE BRITISH STILL FIRING

To Prevent Boers From Taking Deserted Guns

"EXCUSE THE IRON MESSENGER"

An Ingenious Means of Conveying a Message—Other News of the War In the South African Republic.

Pretoria, Dec. 15, (delayed)—It is officially announced that the British are now shelling the position of the Boers at Tugela to prevent their crossing the river and capturing the guns deserted by the British on the south bank of the river.

OFFICIAL REPORT.
London, Dec. 20.—A Pretoria dispatch says an official message from Boer headquarters at Ladysmith reports captured 208 prisoners, two guns and thirteen wagons with much ammunition at the battle of Tugela river.
While this dispatch shows that the Boers did not get all the ten guns lost in the battles by force, and other dispatches from Durban also go to show that all the guns are not in possession of the Boers.

AN IRON MESSENGER.
London, Dec. 20.—News from Mafeking the 15th has been received that desultory bombardment continues, and that sharpshooters are daily engaged in duels. A dispatch describes the novel method of sending a message adopted by the Boers on the 14th. A five pound shell was fired into town that day and did not explode. It was opened and found to contain a letter as follows:

"Dear Powell: Excuse the iron messenger. No other means of communication. Please tell Mrs. — mother and family that all are well.
Don't drink all the whiskey, but leave some for us when we get in." The name was torn off.

METHODISTS AND BAPTISTS.
Their Gifts to Foreign and Domestic Missions.

The Biblical Recorder this week quotes Rev. J. E. White as saying that during the past year the Baptists in North Carolina have raised $38,517.15 for missions divided thus: State Missions, $20,074.98; Home Missions $5, 768.50; Foreign Missions $10,673.67.
The Methodist society, raised a total of $34,144.70 divided into $21,331.
71 for Foreign Missions and $12,812.
99 for Home Missions.

The Recorder goes on to say:
"The Methodist system is thorough and to a degree efficient. But it is expensive. For support of Bishops and Presiding Elders they contribute more than $25,000. The total expense of administration, oversight, etc., in our North Carolina Baptists work last year was $4,000. But of course the Presiding Elders are more than administrators and leaders, they are also missionaries after a certain order.

"It is clear that while the Methodists excel in gifts to Foreign Missions, the Baptists are far ahead in efforts to redeem the waste places in our own State."

Why not give something useful along with the fancy goods and toys? Here's Don't forget the band entertainment

Miss Eva Callett were married at the groom's mother near Trinity, where they spent last night. Congratulations and best wishes from all their friends.

"Shorty" Gossett, colored, of Randolph county, was in town yesterday.
He bears the distinction of being the shortest individual of his age, 51 years, in stature, in North Carolina, and perhaps in the south, measuring 4 feet 7 inches in height. He is nearly all body. His legs are only 15 inches long. John, which is his right name, is quite superstitious. He owns an ox and a two-wheeled cart, which answers all his purposes in the hauling line.
Strange to say that he is a swift runner, if his legs are so short. He is indeed a curiosity.

EXCITING EVENT LAST NIGHT Mothers

Passers-by Startled by a Thrilling Runaway.

CRITICAL CONDITION OF THE DRI-VER.

About 6:30 last evening a team of horses attached to a large express wagon owned by Stephen & McCord and conveying a large upright piano became frightened in some unknown manner and dashed madly down Elm street narrowly escaping collision with several teams and nearly trampling under foot two persons who were crossing the street.

Upon approaching the railroad tracks the team saw a yard engine making up a train, throwing out the driver, Patrick Keenan, who puckily clung to the lines for several yards.

The team was finally stopped on Buchanan street and found to be unhurt. The driver, Patrick Keenan, was picked up unconscious and taken to the hospital and at last report had not regained his senses.

The piano which was being delivered was from the salesroom of C. J. Jellison, factory agent, 217 South Elm street, who is making such a revolution in selling pianos in Greensboro.

Mr. Jellison wishes to state that all pianos bought before he leaves the city will be sold at wholesale factory prices less freight charges back to the factory, as it is better to give the customer the benefit instead of the railroads. He has only a few left and will sell them at about half the regular retail price this week, or as long as he is in the city.

Those who are thinking of purchasing pianos even inside of the next two years will save nearly one-half the price charged by agents by calling for them at once.

Judge Shaw Complimented.

Everywhere he holds court Judge Thomas J. Shaw of this city, receives high praise. He deserves it all. He has just closed a three weeks term in Winston and the Sentinel says:

"Judge Shaw, of Greensboro, has been holding court here nearly three weeks and hearing cases of great importance. He has also heard several important cases from neighboring counties in which the Winston bar attended. The present court has been of great civil service.

"The Sentinel heard a member of the Winston bar, who has been with the judge on the entire fall circuit, say that there is no judge in North Carolina who has ridden the circuit for years, who excelled Judge Shaw in clearness and accurate apprehension of a case. His charges to the jury, however involved and intricate the cases may be, are masterpieces of clear exposition of facts and law to the jury."

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 20, 1899.

ONE OF OUR NEEDS.

One of the urgent needs of the city of Greensboro is a first class, modern hospital. Without it we are behind the times. No one will question this. The necessity for this has often been demonstrated. The demand is a crying one and should be satisfied.

We are informed that a little of the right kind of effort on the part of our citizens will secure what we so much need along this line.

Who is interested in this move?

Let us get together and make the proper effort to build a hospital. We would be glad to see and talk with any of our citizens who may take an interest in the matter.

TAKE IT DOWN.

That bill board stuck up on the front corner of the county court house is an eye sore, and should not be allowed to stay there. There is plenty of room in other spaces for advertising without covering up our public buildings. Think of such a thing on the state capitol or the national capitol. A county court house is entitled to as much consideration as those buildings.

And we will remark, incidentally, that when the bill boards on vacant lots, and old, unused buildings are all taken up, the newspapers of the city will still have advertising space to sell at reasonable rates—to those who will pay for it.

For the third time President McKinley has sent the nomination of H. G. Ewart to the senate for judge of the Western district of North Carolina, and for the third time there is evidence of strong opposition to his confirmation, though it is believed the opposition is not as powerful as on the former attempts. Let it be settled.

Hon. W. R. Allen, of Goldsboro, is quoted as having said in Raleigh yesterday that he thought "the nomination of Aycock for governor was assured." Judge Allen further says: "He will carry the east, a large part of the centre and while his friends do not claim large support for him from the extreme west, he will have a good vote from western North Carolina." Mr. Aycock has many warm admirers in this part of the state who will help to put him in the governor's chair. He is a strong and clean man, and an able campaigner. He is level headed and wise. He will make such a campaign as the state has seldom seen.

Now, that we have got the matter of when the century ends settled to our own satisfaction, somebody sends us an anonymous letter arguing the thing, and wants to measure it by miles on a railroad. He is probably in dead earnest about it but he doesn't send his name and we can't print his argument. We settled this matter quick in our own mind to avoid the calamities which are said to have befallen others who tried to work it out. We will say, however, that the envelope in which this letter comes is from the Southern Railway. We have tried to be fair in dealing with that road in these columns and can't understand why any of its officials or employees should attempt to draw us into an argument that is said to have run people crazy.

The press dispatches in the morning papers confirm the report as published in our news columns yesterday to the effect that General Lawton had been shot and killed in the Philippines. He was known as a good fighter and was a soldier of much experience. From a brief sketch of his career we copy the following:

He served in the union army throughout the civil war, having entered the service as sergeant of Company E, Ninth Indiana volunteer infantry in April, 1861. In March, 1865, he was brevetted colonel for gallant service during the war. He entered the regular establishment in July, 1863, as second lieutenant of the Forty-first Infantry (color d), and remained with that branch of the army until January, 1871, when he was transferred to the Fourth cavalry, with which he remained until September, 1888, when he was appointed inspector general with the rank of lieutenant colonel and held the rank until the opening of the war with Spain, when he was promoted to major. He was then assigned to the Fifth army corps, and served with it in the operations in Cuba, and in the operations in Santiago.

It is believed that the outcome of the contest between Martin and Tyler for the Virginia senatorship will result in helping along the adoption of senatorial primaries, which consummation is to be earnestly hoped for. Martin was re-elected, but there are many in Virginia who do not believe he was the choice of the majority of the voters of the state. The same will be said in North Carolina, no matter who is chosen if it is left to the legislature to elect.

DON'T WANT HIM BACK.

C. P. Lockey Not Welcomed Back to Wilmington.

A gentleman was in Raleigh yesterday who had spent the previous day in Wilmington. He said that he traveled with Mr. Lockey, who was on his way to Washington, D. C., having been notified by citizens of Wilmington that his return to the city was not desired. In line with the remarks of this gentleman, the Wilmington Messenger in its issue of yesterday said: "It will be remembered that Mr. Lockey left Wilmington 'at the suggestion of citizens soon after the memorable November 10th, 1898, revolution, and it is understood that a special committee strongly intimated to him during the past forty-eight hours that his presence here could not be tolerated, for the reason that the edict has been issued that certain of the overthrown regime should be exiled and the order must be perpetual.'"—News and Observer.

Only 75-cent bottle will cure or prove its value. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

The true spirit of Christmas consists in giving presents to people you know are not going to reciprocate.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough, cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

The Poet Burns,

Not the least of the advantages attending life assurance is the serenity of mind which attends the provident man lying on a bed of sickness, or when he is in prospect of death—so unlike that painful anxiety for the future welfare of the family not provided for. The poet Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, said that he was "still the victim of affliction. Alas! Clark, I begin to fear the worst. Burns' poor widow and a half a dozen of his dear little ones, helpless orphans; there, I am weak as a woman's tear. Enough of this, 'tis half of my disease!"

"If you would escape the rock upon which the lamented Burns split," take shelter from the storm that is bound to spend its fury upon you when the fatal summons comes, by at once securing the magnetic contract offered by the Provident Savings.
